ABOUT ME

I strive to bring meaning to my designs with the intention of creating positivity in the world. I have developed great time management skills, as well as a strong work ethic by going to college full-time, working 12 hours a week, and volunteering on the side. As a design intern, I'm happy to explain my process to my supervisor to ensure customer satisfaction. The chance to work for a company where I get to design in many different mediums is something I look forward to.
